TINY BIBLE STUDY

FOR BUSY MOMS RAISING TINY FEET

HEY! HEY!

COURTNEY HERE

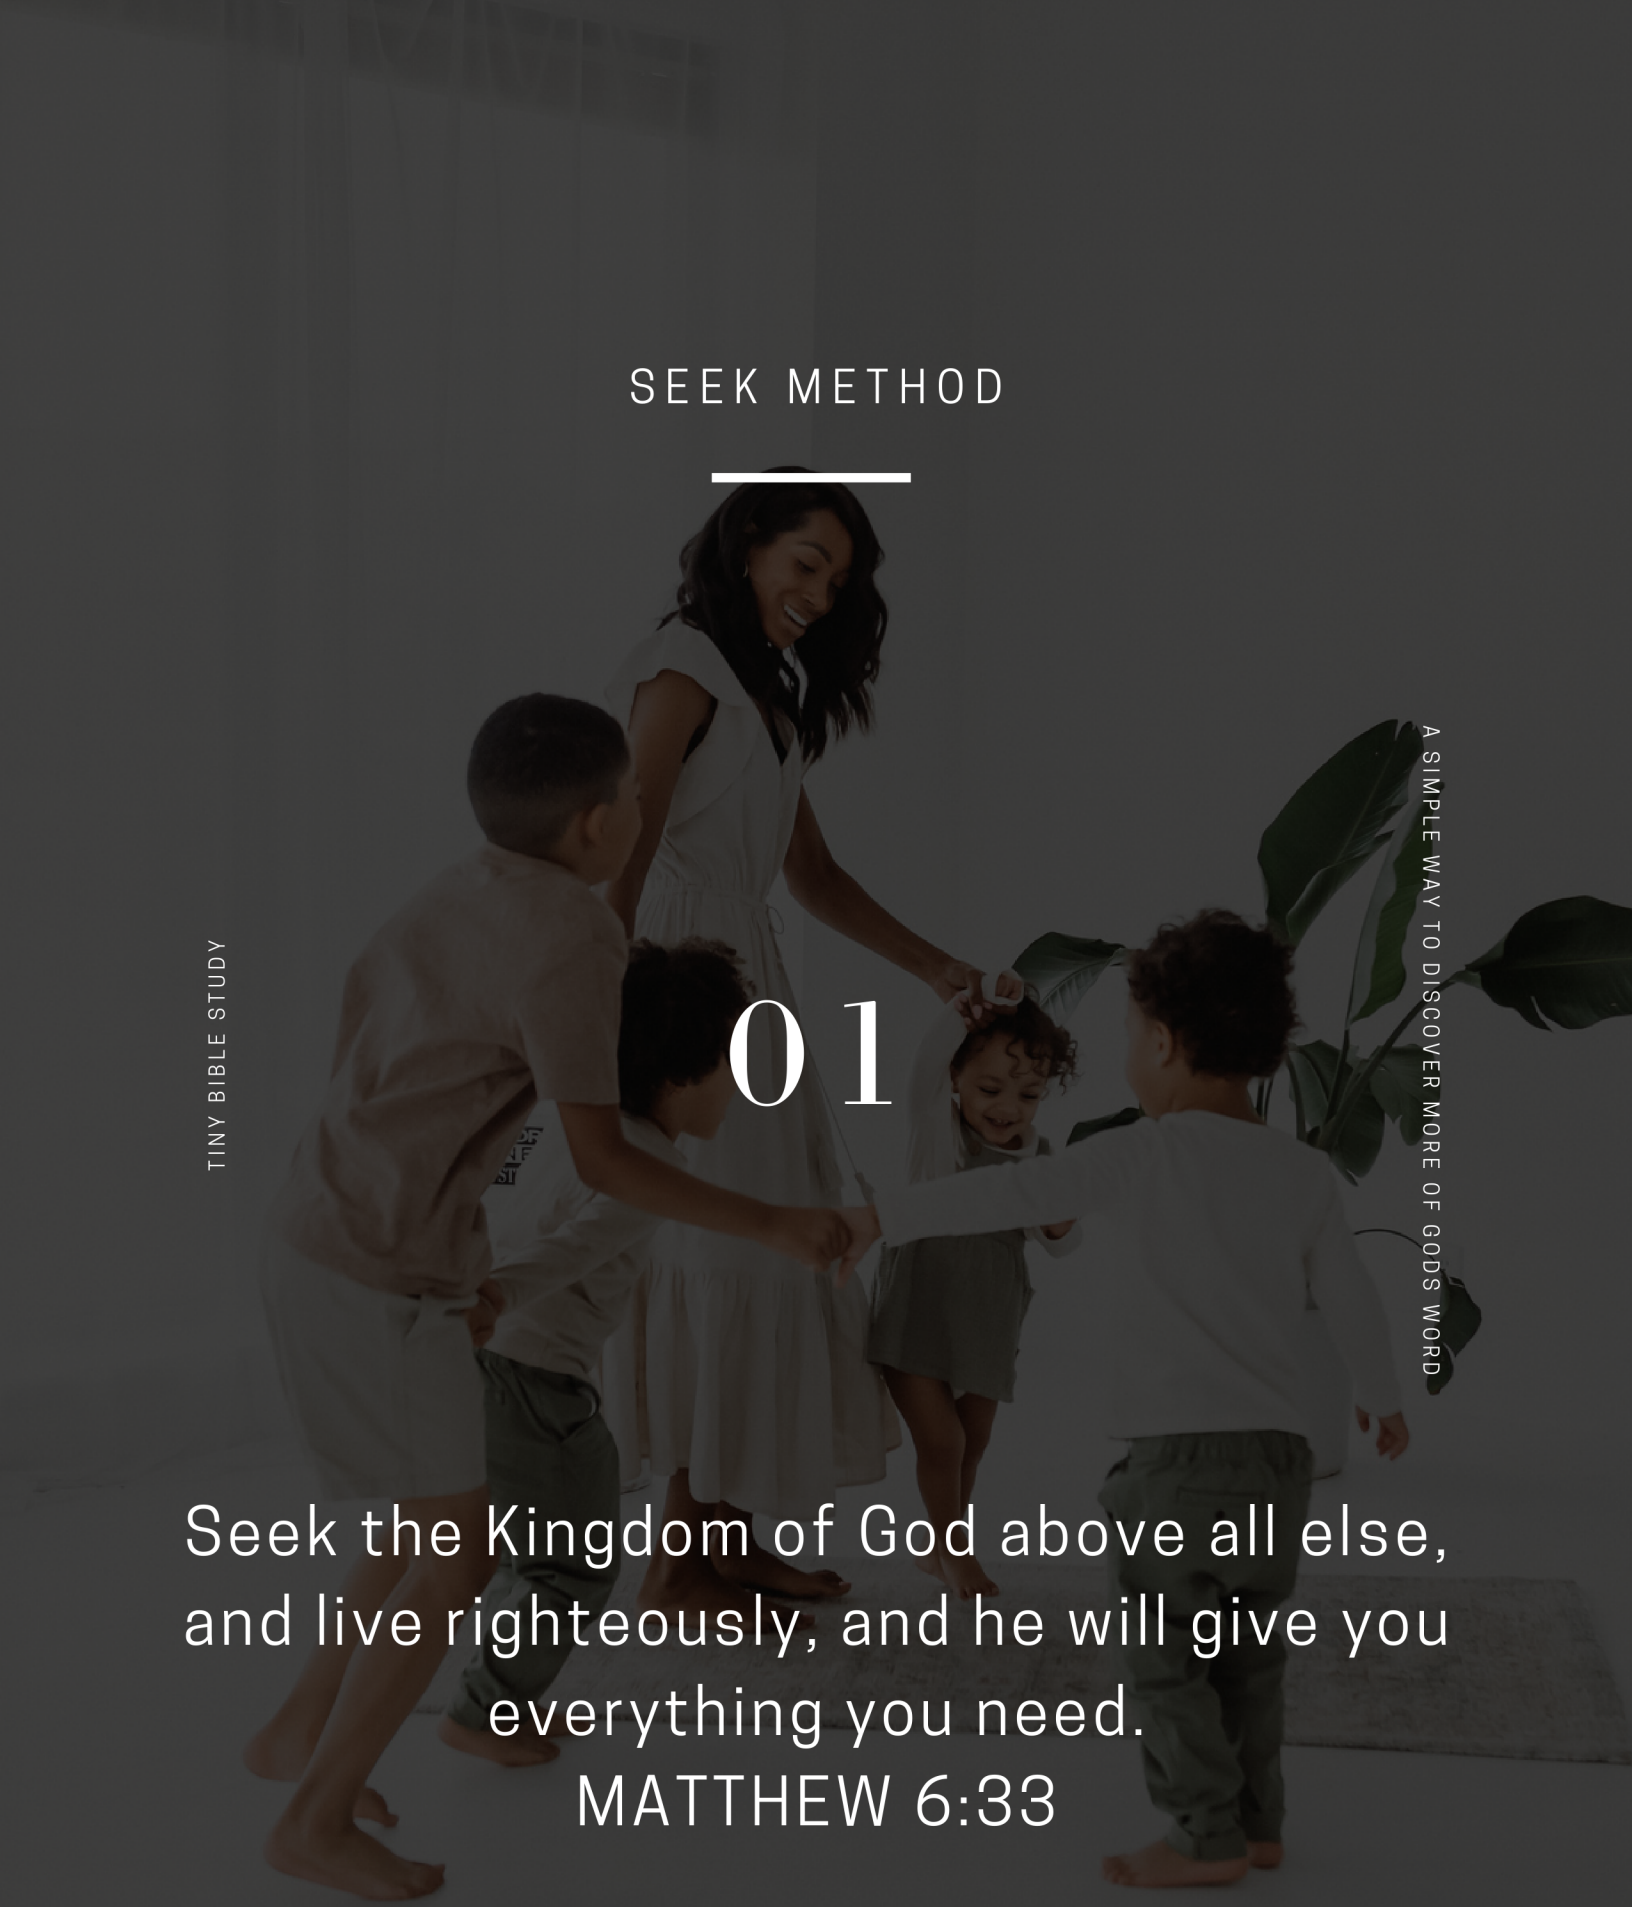

If you only knew my story....on the outside I've always been a bubbly girl with a tenacious attitude and a mind for setting goals! On the inside though, I was broken, alone, and constantly chasing affirmations. I thought I reached a point where I knew God but I was so wrong.

A LITTLE MORE FLUFF...

In 2019 I was hit with horrible postpartum depression. 2020 I went through a rough breakup, and had my third child... THEN right before 2021, I got into a really bad car accident after finding myself pregnant for the 4th time! I was shattered, but God was faithful. That hasn't always been easy to say, but through walking this journey out day by day, I have discovered more about God then I could have ever imagined. My prayer is that Tiny Bible Study will help you to get closer with God, and take advantage of those tiny moments we grasp as mothers.

SEEK METHOD

TINY BIBLE STUDY

A SIMPLE WAY TO DISCOVER MORE OF GODS WORD

01

Seek the Kingdom of God above all else, and live righteously, and he will give you everything you need.
MATTHEW 6:33

BREAKDOWN

THE 'SEEK METHOD' IS A WAY FOR US TO MAXIMIZE THE SMALL MOMENTS WITH GOD BY DISSECTING SCRIPTURE AND ADDING TO OUR KNOWLEDGE OF THE WORD GOD.

01. SCIPTURE

Write down the scripture . Even if you know it...this part is important because it will help us have something to reference to as we are writing our other key points.

02. EXAMINATION

This is where we observe the scripture and begin to write down The Who, What, When, & Why the scripture was written. What words or phrases stand out to you and why? What do you feel the Holy Spirit is speaking to you through the text.

03. EXECUTION

This is the part where we can set small goals to bring us closer to God. We can answer questions like: "how can I apply this to my life?" The goal is to convert your selected scripture into a simple action (or two), and the more specific you make your actions, the better!

04. KNEEL

Lastly, write a prayer that will bring your goal/actions to the feet of Jesus. This is where you open your heart up and allow the spirit to move in you throughout the week. Bring forth your praises and even concerns.

SCRIPTURE

JEREMIAH 29:11-14

“For I know the plans I have for you,” says the Lord. “They are plans for good and not for disaster, to give you a future and a hope. In those days when you pray, I will listen. If you look for me wholeheartedly, you will find me. I will be found by you,” says the Lord. “I will end your captivity and restore your fortunes. I will gather you out of the nations where I sent you and will bring you home again to your own land.””

Examination

Let's look a little deeper...

The first thing that I remember being pointed out about verse 11 is that God is saying "I"very specifically because only he knows the plans he has for us. I think oftentimes we get hung up on the words "prosper and future" because they sound better than our "right now" reality.

But if you keep reading, we discover that there is sort of a prerequisite to these "future, prosperous plans" as children of God we don't get to avoid the disaster verse 11 talks about and skip to the peace in the awesome future. But in verse 12 we find that we must call on the Lord and pray to him, then he will hear our voices and listen. Skkrrr.... let's just stop and observe the ending of verse 12.

God makes it a point to say "here and listen" because we know he is Omnipresent. For me, I fast forward to self-destructive thinking like "God can't hear me" I must not be doing the right thing, praying the right way etc.... But that's not true! God tells us "I will hear you, and then takes a step further saying "and I will listen" his word choice here is phenomenal not only is he saying will, meaning God gave us his word. Numbers 23:19 states "God is not a man, so he does not lie, he is not human, so he doesn't change his mind. Has he ever spoken and failed to act? Has he ever promised and not carried through?"

Examination

Cont.

But he is assuring us that he will both hear our plans, and listen! Verse 13 says you will seek me and find me, when you seek me with all of your heart. So here we peeled back another layer, the plans come not just by praying and calling on the Lord, but by seeking God as well with all of our hearts. Now for me, that wording was tricky at first but what I realized on my journey is, seeking God doesn't mean praying harder and looking for God to just pop up! It means spending time getting to know him by reading his word, prayer, worship and even fasting. It's everything!

Imagine playing a game of hide and seek, but you didn't know what you were looking for... You would never find it!

When I began to learn about God's character, and really walk with God, I began to find him everywhere! I even looked back on my life and times I thought he wasn't there, and found him! This verse changed from being a cute quoted scripture on a decorative sign, to "I can't believe I've misunderstood him this whole time!"

EXCECUTION

I can execute this scripture by learning more about God‘s character. I can set a goal this week to spend at least 30 minutes with God either journalling, reading his word, praying or worshiping him! I will begin by splitting everything up into 10 minute increments so that it doesn’t seem overwhelming at first, and then I can grow from there. Once I learn to spend 30 minutes with God I will be able to reflect back on my journaling and the things he has downloaded into my spirit and begin to walk closer to him and seek the plans he has for me instead of the plans I make up for myself.

Kneel(Prayer): father thank you for revelation! Thank you for truly being a good father. Please help me to align my dreams and goals with your plans and father help me to surrender my will to you. Your plans are written for me and you are all powerful, so I pray that you’re will is done in my life . Father your word says in Numbers 23:19 that you cannot lie, and you don’t go back on your word. So I thank you that you’re hearing my cries and listening to my prayers. Father guide me as I set out on a journey to seek you. Keep me anchored in you. Thank you for your word, I love
